Results of the recruitment process for the PhD position in the frame of M-ERA.NET Call 2019 project entitled: “Additive manufactured composite smart structures with embedded fibre Bragg grating sensors”.

Applications from 18 candidates have been received. The chosen were interviewed on Skype.
At the recruitment committee meeting on the 22nd of September 2020, the position was offered to Mr. Torkan Shafighfard.