Results of the recruitment process for the PhD position in the frame of M-ERA.NET Call 2019 project entitled: “Additive manufactured composite smart structures with embedded fibre Bragg grating sensors”

No applications from candidates have been received, due this fact this competition is closed and the new one will be announced soon.